

Kathryn Reid, MA, CRC, CCM

Rehabilitation Counselor and Case Manager

Education

Seattle University M.A. Rehabilitation 1985
Southern Illinois University-Carbondale B.S. Occupational Education 1982

Employment

Reid Case Management, Inc. 2001 to present
OSC Vocational Systems, Inc. 1983–1985/1987–2001
Rehabilitation Counseling, Vocational Assessment, Life Care Planning and Case Management

Certification

Certified Rehabilitation Counselor (CRC #18996) 1985 to 2020
Commission on Rehabilitation Counselor Certification (CRCC)

Certified Case Manager (CCM #12580) 1993 to 2023
Commission for Case Manager Certification (CCMC)

Senior Disability Analyst and Diplomate (ABDA 6878-02) 2002 to Present
American Board of Disability Analysts (ABDA)

Professional Organizations

- International Association of Rehabilitation Professionals (IARP) to 2020
- Academy of Certified Case Managers (ACCM) to 2023
- Case Management Society of America (CMSA) to 2019
- Pacific Northwest Neuropsychological Society (PNNS) to 2019

Presentations & Publications

- “What to Expect When Your Life Care Plan is Reviewed by an Opposing Expert,” 3/13/16; Collaboration, the Essence of Effective Life Care Planning, 2016 Leisure and Learn (L&L) Conference; Caragonne and Associates and Capital University Law School; Ajijic, Mexico.
- “Forecasting the Future: The Role of a Life Care Planner in Determining Your Client’s Future Needs,” 4/11/13; North Seattle Roundtable Meeting; Washington State Associations for Justice (WSAJ).
- “Working with a Same-Side Neuropsychological Expert: Effective Cross-Disciplinary Collaboration,” 2/24/2011; 2011 L&L Conference; Caragonne and Associates and Capital University Law School; Ajijic, Mexico.
- “Vocational & Disability Assessment in Chronic Fatigue Cases,” 10/13/2010; Chronic Fatigue Advisory Committee, U. S. Dept of Health & Human Services.
- “Managing & Controlling Deposition Testimony,” 4/26/2010; Starting and Sustaining a Life Care Planning Enterprise in the Current Recession, 2010 L&L Conference; Caragonne and Associates and Capital University Law School; Ajijic, Jalisco, Mexico.